

Ralph Wieser

Producer / CEO

Before establishing Mischief Films, Ralph Wieser was programming director of an arthouse cinema and managing cultural events and film projects. His profound knowledge of the film industry in terms of distribution and programming results from his long-time work experience with running his own cinema and a company working in the area of film (organisation of festivals, cinema events, film congresses, distribution). In 2002 together with Georg Misch he founded the independent production company Mischief Films and started producing creative documentaries for cinema and television.

He is tutor and expert at European training courses and in the jury of documentary markets and festivals:

Ralph Wieser is member of the European Film Academy, Austrian Film Academy, Die Produzent*innen (The Producers - Austrian Producers Alliance), dok.at – Austrian Documentary Film Alliance, DAE - Documentary Association of Europe, Board member of the Eurodoc Network.
